

This will be the only land available for the public to use after development of The Knowle —steep and inaccessible to those in wheelchairs or to parents with pushchairs, whereas the current parkland can be used by all.

This small parcel of land will be all that is left of the original parkland and will be surrounded by buildings.